The Triton Heavy-Duty (HD) Bracket is a versatile bracket that can be used to support large countertops, floating tables, shelving, and even benches. When installing the Triton HD Bracket, it is recommended that the brackets are mounted to the wall studs. This provides the screws with adequate biting material. As a general rule, studs are spaced 16" to 24" apart. All Triton brackets should be mounted to studs or $\frac{1}{4}$ " thick backing material. Remaining brackets should be evenly spaced across the countertop or shelf.

- 2. Without fully tightening the screws, attach each bracket to the wall using four (4) wood screws.

- 3. Double Check the levelness across the brackets. Make any adjustments as necessary, then fully tighten all screws (see Figure 3).

- 4. For increased security, fasten your shelf or bench to the upper leg of the bracket using wood screws. The screws should be shorter than the thickness of the shelf or bench.

Note: Weight should be kept evenly distributed across the shelf or bench.
